FROM SARA'S SPOT:

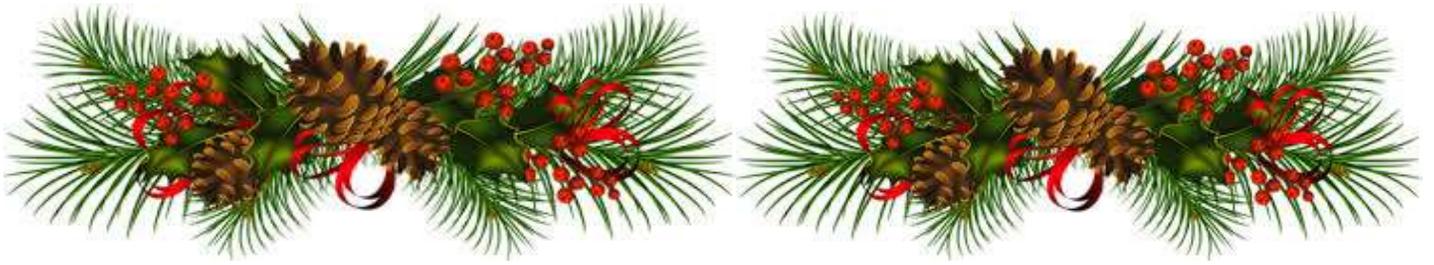

As the weather gets cooler, scents of pine and cinnamon become common, and Christmas music begins its annual takeover of the radio, the holidays bring joy as a reminder that there is still good to balance the bad. It is a time of cherished traditions and nostalgia, a time for leaving milk and cookies for Santa and lumps of coal for bad girls and boys. It's the season to watch the classic movies while drinking hot chocolate- It's a Wonderful Life, Miracle on 34th Street, How the Grinch Stole Christmas, or more unconventional ones as Die Hard, Krampus, Reindeer Games, or Gremlins. Wishing you the joy of the holiday season however you celebrate, having the lives we live, the closeness of our families and treasured friends, and faith that the coming year will be filled with health and happiness.
